

MARCO MOSCONI

CORVINA ROSSO

*A bright red wine with an array of crunchy berry fruit notes, ripe refreshing acidity, medium to light body on the palate.
Great gastronomic red for the table.*

Color: Red

Area of Production: Val d'Alba, Veneto, Italy

Varietals: Corvina

Soil: Alluvial soil and calcareous marl

Elevation: 140-250 meters

Age of Vines: 30 years old

Farming practices : Organic

Maceration: 25 days

Fermentation: Carefully selected bunches, gently pressed and spontaneously fermented in stainless steel

Ageing: 6 months in cement. Unfiltered, unclarified